

Lots to See and Read in This Issue!

Section Meeting October 25-26

The Section Meeting in Worcester this past weekend was a great success. Pictures below. Here are some highlights:

Robin Hadfield, East Canada Section and International Director, attended on behalf of The Ninety-Nines International and showed a wonderful video on the history of The Ninety-Nines.

Bebe O'Neil, Flight Operations/Systems Chief Pilot for United Airlines, spoke about her aviation experiences after dinner Friday evening.

Martha Dunbar received the Wright Brothers Master Pilot Award recognizing 50 years of safe flying.

Glenna Blackwell won the Section Award of Merit.

Evelyn Kropp won the door prize, a headset donated by David Clark.

Section business was conducted at the Business Meeting on Saturday morning.

Museum of Science Social Event 11/9

The Eastern New England
Chapter is holding a social event at the Museaum of Science in Boston on Saturday,
November 9.

The visit is purely for fun for 99s members and guests. You can arrive and depart on your own schedule, but let's plan to meet up at the To The Moon exhibit at 11:30 for a group photo, then lunch. The Museum is open 9-5.

There will be a STEM event going on at the Museum that day, and four of our ENE members will be leading an educational activity as part of that event. Thank you Sue Lin, Jessie Zuberek, Margot Cheel, and Karen Mitchell for volunteering!

details will be forthcoming closer to the date, but mark your calendar and plan on bringing your spouse or guest, a dish to share, and a Yankee Swap gift if you wish to participate. Everyone welcome!

ENE Scholarships

ENE Chapter Will award three $2,000 scholarships in March. For more information, download the flyer and application here. Please pass on the information at your flight school or FBO!

Speaking Opportunity

My name is Patricia

Hello,

O'Flaherty and I am on the committee for a woman's organization called Chelsea Zonta. We raised funds locally to assist women and girls, with scholarships, holiday food baskets, domestic violence funding, etc., as well as our Global assistance with Zonta International. Please see our website for more info as well at www.zonta.org Every January we celebrate our "Amelia Earhart dinner" and it includes the Chelsea club, as well as the other local Zonta clubs & will we have dinner, raffles and a speaker. We were interested if any one of you ladies would like to speak to us for about 20-25 minutes (or longer, if you wish) about your flying, your life & how you got involved in flying, etc. on Thursday, Jan 16th at the DoubleTree Hilton in Chelsea, MA at 6pm?

We will provide dinner for you and a guest.

Please call or email me with any questions and thank you so much.
